Short biographies of the nominees not already serving on the Committee are set out below

Nichola Aldridge

Nichola is a Jersey qualified solicitor and senior associate in Carey Olsen's trusts and private wealth practice, with over 9 years' experience in her field. Nichola advises on the establishment and operation of private and commercial trust structures, including charitable and trusts and foundations. Having moved to Jersey eight and a half years ago, Nichola wishes to give something back to the Island she now calls home and put her legal skills to good use for the AJC. Nichola is a member of Carey Olsen's Charities Committee, which supports two local charities chosen by staff for a period of two years, and regularly takes part in various charitable events outside of those organised by Carey Olsen.

Kirsty McGregor

Kirsty is a Chartered Management Accountant with experience across manufacturing, retail and service sectors. Currently Finance Director at Jersey Dairy she has experience of formulating, communicating and implementing strategic plans and is hoping this will be of value to the AJC committee in view of the changes and challenges ahead.

Kirsty moved to Jersey from the UK ten years ago and is now in a position to get involved with local charities; the role as Treasurer for the AJC appeals as there is scope to assist the local charity sector as a whole. Most of her free time is taken up by her four rescue dogs.
